Director's Report

The Library Director attended the Director's meeting in Carlock on 2/13. Employee completed CPR class & Narcan training on 2/23. Upcoming library events include bingo, ICash, an author, adult craft, story time, book club, coffee, LEGO club, and spice club. Future's Unlimited in Pontiac is scheduled to visit the library once a month for coffee hour. 35 letters were sent to local businesses seeking Summer Reading sponsorships. Audiobooks are not being checked out and therefore have been taken out of circulation. Jim Durre was called to handle another plumbing problem in the restroom. Guetwein Doors repaired the front door that wouldn't close all the way.

President Comments

Three options were discussed for the replacement of the outdoor signage, ranging in price from $5000-$17,000. Ultimately, the Board decided to table the signage replacement in favor of saving the money for future endeavors. Additional hours added on Wednesday, 9 am -7 pm, on a motion by Amber Carls, seconded by Martin Kudla. The Library expansion was discussed at length, but no decisions were made at this time. Free Little Library needs to be relocated and/or replaced due to water damage.

Vice President's Comments

Diaz Sign Art will install the memorial by the end of March.

Secretary Report

The previous meeting minutes were approved as proposed by Kim Cox, seconded by Amber Carls, with no changes.
